TABLE OF CONTENTS.

APPENDICES.

CHAPTER I.

EXPLANATION OF THE SYSTEM OF REGISTRATION.

(1.) Trade along the Nuddea rivers.
(2.) Trade along the Megna to and from Chittagong.
(3.) Traffic on the Midnapore and Hidgellee canals.
(4.) Traffic on the Orissa canals.
(5.) Traffic along the Calcutta canals.
(6.) Traffic along the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers, carried by River Steam Companies.
(7.) Traffic along the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers, carried by the steamers of the Eastern Bengal Railway.
(8.) Traffic along the East Indian Railway.
(9.) Traffic along the Eastern Bengal Railway.
(10.) Traffic along the State Railways—namely, Calcutta and South-Eastern, Northern Bengal, Nalhati, Tirhoot and Gya State Railways.

As in the previous three years, the collection of statistics of the internal trade of Bengal was limited to the registration of the traffic carried along the chief routes in the province, as noted in the margin, and of that of the ports of Calcutta, Chittagong, and Orissa. The manner in which these statistics are collected, and the different sources from which they are obtained by Government, have been detailed in previous reports. The acknowledgments of the Lieutenant-Governor are again due to the agents of the India General and Rivers Steam Navigation Companies for the courtesy with which they have always permitted their figures of trade to be used by Government.

2. The valuation of articles adopted in the present report has been fixed, as before, with reference to the wholesale prices ruling in selected districts of Bengal, from which the statements continue to be received every six months.

CHAPTER II.

TRADE ALONG THE CHIEF ROUTES.

TRAFFIC ALONG THE NUDDEA RIVERS.

THE total quantity and value of the trade passing the Nuddea rivers during the past three years were as follows:—

2. The decrease in the quantities carried both ways was 12·77 per cent. as compared with 1880-81, and 9·06 per cent. as compared with 1879-80. The Jungypore returns alone shewed a decrease of 13,00,466 maunds, or 21·79 per cent. compared with the previous year, due to the Bhagiruthi river having been closed in November 1881, and there being, therefore, no traffic passing this channel for the last five months of the year under report. The unfavourable state of the Matabhanga river since the commencement of the dry season also affected the traffic passing the Kissengunge station, where the quantity registered was 5,75,923 maunds, or 14·29 per cent. below the trade of 1880-81.

3. As regards the down stream traffic, the largest increase during the past year as compared with 1880-81, was in raw jute (3,72,414 maunds), gunny cloth (1,927,564 pieces), miscellaneous spring crops (80,042 maunds), saline substances other than saltpetre (60,839 maunds), miscellaneous oilseeds (1,19,426 maunds), and timber (1,69,040 maunds), and the articles showing the largest decrease were gunny-bags (894,020 in number), wheat (6,60,616 maunds), gram and pulse (67,531 maunds), linseed (5,70,137 maunds), mustard-seed (2,00,745 maunds), and stone and marble (1,64,339 maunds). The statement below shews the number of laden boats the cargoes of which were registered during the past three years:—

4. The difference between the down and up trip boats is made up of empty boats, which are not accounted for in the trade returns.

5. Down stream traffic.—The chief staples of traffic carried down stream during the past three years, are shown in the following statement :—

* Piece-goods, mats, and manufactures of silk are shown according to value in rupees.
† Gunny-bags, gunny-cloth, and hides are shewn according to number.

6. The two final columns of the foregoing statement shew the proportion of the Calcutta traffic to the total trade. This section of the traffic will be separately dealt with elsewhere in this report. The following is a brief description of all the important items of intermediate traffic upon this route.

7. Jute, raw.—The quantity of raw jute carried downwards during the past year was 3,72,414 maunds, or 39·32 per cent. in excess of the figures of 1880-81, and 12,655 maunds, or ·97 per cent. above those of 1879-80. 10,22,613 maunds in all were sent to Calcutta, 2,89,846 maunds to Bhuddressur, and 6,986 maunds to smaller marts in Moorshedabad, Nuddea, Burdwan, and Hooghly. The trade of Bhuddressur was for the most part with Doolalgunge in the Purneah district.

At the rate of two pieces of gunny-cloth per bag (locally called "chutty," each piece 5 feet long and $1\frac{1}{4}$ wide), the grand total of the year's traffic amounted to 2,047,507 bags, against 1,977,745 bags in 1880-81, and 4,106,625 bags in 1879-80. Of this 1,752,570 bags were taken to Calcutta and 294,937 bags to other places, of which Bhuddressur imported 285,375 bags, Rughoonathpore 3,625 bags, Culna 2,750 bags, and Jungypore 1,250 bags. Besides these, other places exported smaller quantities, which aggregated (34,782 maunds).

44. Vegetables and other kinds of fruits.—Formerly vegetables used to be shewn under "All other kinds of provisions," but this classification was changed by the Government of India, and since July 1881 they have been included under "Other kinds of fruits and nuts." The total quantity registered under this head amounted during the past year to 85,805 maunds, out of which 49,602 maunds relate to the Calcutta trade, while the remaining 36,203 maunds were distributed as follows:—

45. Tobacco.—The total quantity of tobacco has risen from 48,666 maunds in 1879-80 to 70,090 maunds in 1880-81, and 1,00,320 maunds in 1881-82. The amount of the Calcutta trade during the past year was 92,395 maunds, while 7,755 maunds represent the local traffic of the Midnapore district, and 170 maunds were sent to Midnapore from the Hooghly district.

46. Timber.—The weight of timber was 54,581 maunds, against 87,748 maunds in 1880-81, and 1,36,537 maunds in 1879-80. A great portion of this traffic, amounting to 32,796 maunds, was purely local, exported chiefly from the town of Midnapore (25,335 maunds) to places like Chilka (15,003 maunds), Dainan (2,027 maunds), and a number of other marts in the interior of the district. The quantity of timber sent to Hooghly from Midnapore was 2,023 maunds, and the total amount of the Calcutta traffic by this route was 19,742 maunds.

TRAFFIC ON THE ORISSA CANALS.

48. Last year the quantity of merchandise registered was nearly the same as in the two previous years. The following remarks of the Executive Engineer, Braminee-Byturnee division, describe the general condition of the traffic carried along these canals during the past official year:—

"Although the harvest last year was unusually abundant, and the prices of rice unprecedentedly low, there has been no increase in the traffic, the export being still depressed owing to the large stocks in the seaports supplied by this district. I cannot, however, give the details, as the complete returns for the year have not been compiled.

"Another length of the Kendrapara canal to Jumboo for 15 miles was opened to the public in July last year, by which the last link connecting the canal with the port of False Point on the left bank of the Mahanuddy was completed. At the same time the improvement of the Hunsoon and Boincha creeks made available another route by water to Chandbally viâ Jumboo instead of, as hithertofore, by Pattamoondee.

"The import and passenger traffic between Calcutta and Chandbally have improved, three steamers making weekly trips to that port during the year from Calcutta. Hitherto the Government steamer only has met them from Cuttack, but since the month of July 1881 two other steamers belonging to private firms have shared in the carrying trade, and by their competition reduced the cost of freight and passage considerably.

"The extension of the Gobree canal from Gundakia to Alba on the Brahminee was sanctioned and begun last November. When completed the route by the Hunsoon creek will not be required and as the flood embankments in connection with the scheme will protect a large tract of country from inundation, it is expected that the work will have a beneficial effect on the trade of the districts.

"When the branch canal to Bhuddruck is completed this year an increase in the trade with that town is anticipated by the high level canals ranges III, II, I."

49. The number of laden boats registered on these canals during the past three years was—

TRAFFIC ALONG THE BRAHMAPUTRA AND MEGNA RIVERS CARRIED BY THE STEAMERS OF THE EASTERN BENGAL RAILWAY.

65. Under existing arrangements the statistics of trade carried by the steamers of the Eastern Bengal Railway Company along the Brahmaputra and Megna rivers are annually supplied to Government for incorporation in the annual report on the internal trade of Bengal. The statistics of this trade during the year 1880-81 were published in the last report, and the figures now presented relate to the trade registered in the past official year. The total quantity and value of the trade carried by the different steamer services of the Eastern Bengal Railway during the past two years were:—

The greatest improvement was in the Serajgunge service, which carried 3,48,894 maunds in excess of the previous year's figures. In the case of the Dacca service the increase amounted to 1,98,025 maunds. As regards the up traffic, the total quantity registered shewed a decrease of 9,615 maunds in quantity and of Rs. 17,97,055 in value, due mostly to the fall in the merchandise carried by the Dacca service. The principal staples comprising the downward and upward traffic are exhibited in the following statements:—

The largest increase in the down traffic was in raw jute (6,87,753 maunds) and the largest decrease in mustard-seed (1,23,849 maunds); while, as regards the up traffic, European piece-goods shewed a decrease of Rs. 7,61,800 and manufactured leather of Rs. 3,26,375 in value. The only item which exhibited some improvement was salt, of which 3,87,952 maunds were carried during the past year, against 3,73,690 maunds in 1880-81. The Calcutta trade constituted 92·73 per cent. of the total traffic carried by the Company's steamers during the past year, against a percentage of 95·29 in 1880-81. The appendices attached to this report exhibit the figures of this trade in detail.

Traffic along the East Indian Railway.

68. Hitherto the trade of Bengal carried by the East Indian Railway used to be compiled under the three blocks of—(I) Calcutta and Howrah, (II) Bengal, comprising the districts of the Burdwan and Presidency divisions, through which the line passes, and (III) Behar; but in the year under report two more blocks have been included in the list, namely, Eastern Bengal, comprising the districts traversed by the Eastern Bengal Railway, and Northern Bengal, comprising the districts traversed by the Northern Bengal Railway, in order to provide for the exhibition in the returns of the through traffic between the East Indian and the Eastern and Northern Bengal Ra'lways.

69. The total weight and value of merchandise imported into, and exported from, each of these blocks, exclusive of the local trade between station and station within the blocks other than Calcutta, during the past three years were as follows:—

81. The total quantity carried downward last year was 65·38 per cent. over the trade of 1880-81, and 87·46 per cent. over that of 1879-80 The increase in the wheat trade alone was 116·06 and 254·91 per cent. as compared with the two previous years. In gram and pulse the percentages of increase were 43 34 and 62·84, respectively, but the rice trade shewed a decrease of 15·16 per cent. as compared with 1880-81, and of 51·09 per cent. as compared with 1879-80. As regards the upward traffic, the increase noticed last year was maintained and still further extended during 1881-82. The total quantity rose from 3,26,490 maunds in 1879-80 to 23,16,020 maunds in 1880-81, and 33,18,159 maunds in 1881-82, the chief items which contributed to the increase being rice (7,69,772 maunds) and pulses (3,16,562 maunds). This is attributable chiefly to the partial failure of the rain crops in the North-Western Provinces, which tended to stimulate the demand for cheap food-grains in that part of country. The amount of food-grains despatched to and from Calcutta was 1,15,94,610 maunds, and the remainder 37,29,455 maunds, as detailed below, represents the trade of the other blocks:—

In the case of rice the bulk of the supply came from Bengal (16,23,865 maunds) and from Behar (4,99,063 maunds). The principal places to which rice was consigned during the past three years are shewn below:—

The total quantity of goods carried by this line during the past year, as shewn in column 6 of the foregoing statement, shewed a considerable improvement as compared with the trade of the previous two years, the percentages of increase being 29·54 and 42·36, respectively. The advance in the imports was 27·89 per cent. over the figures of 1880-81, and 44·05 per cent. over those of 1879-80; the chief items shewing the largest increase as compared with 1880-81 being raw jute (20,82,446 maunds), gunny (3,508,859 bags), unrefined sugar (70,245 maunds), and raw cotton (13,464 maunds). As regards the exports, the increase amounted to 34·20 per cent. on the returns of 1880-81, and 38·01 per cent. on those of 1879-80. The greatest advance in the year's traffic under this head as compared with the preceding year, being observable in European piece-goods (Rs. 10,43,840 in value), coal and coke (1,72,606 maunds), salt (1,97,769 maunds), rice (1,63,040 maunds), iron (60,871 maunds), and oils (18,064 maunds). The most important items of traffic carried by this route during the past three years, are shewn in the following statements :—

TRAFFIC ALONG THE STATE RAILWAYS.

110. The total quantity and value of merchandise carried along the different State Railways in Bengal during the past three years, are shewn in the following statement:—

111. The trade along the different State Railways during the past year shewed a satisfactory improvement both in quantity and in value, the increase being most conspicuous along the Northern Bengal, Tirhoot, and Gya lines. The advance in the aggregate quantity of goods conveyed by all these lines was 33,11,860 maunds, or 42·82 per cent., as compared with 1880-81, and 43,65,642 maunds, or 65·34 per cent., as compared with 1879-80; while as regards the value the increase amounted to Rs. 1,57,10,766, or 17·47 per cent. in excess of the figures of 1880-81, and Rs. 2,65,66,369, or 33·60 per cent., above those of 1879-80. A detailed account of the traffic passing these lines of railways is published separately in the following pages.

CALCUTTA AND SOUTH-EASTERN STATE RAILWAY.

112. The total quantity and value of the traffic conveyed by the Calcutta and South-Eastern State Railway during the past three years were:—

	Traffic towards Calcutta. Quantity.	Traffic from Calcutta. Quantity.	Total. Quantity.	Total. Value.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.	Rs.
1879-80	7,57,693	24,630	7,82,323	8,59.835

1881-82	9,17,307	3,17,025	12,64,332	10,47,746

113. The amount of traffic last year showed an increase of 3,43,023 maunds in quantity, and of Rs. 2,90,315 in value over the trade of 1880-81, and of 4,82,009 maunds in quantity, and of Rs. 1,87,911 in value over that of 1879-80. The weight of goods carried from Calcutta alone shewed an increase of 2,56,146 maunds on the returns of 1880-81, but of this amount no less than 2,48,944 maunds consisted of railway materials and stores for the Sonapore-Mugra Hat extension. Of the chief articles of trade, gunny-bags shewed an increase of 115,675 in number as compared with the previous year, rice of 1,33,864 maunds, and hay and straw of 11,569 kahuns. In firewood there was a falling off of 1,24,197 maunds, in coal of 7,950 maunds, and in paddy of 7,422 maunds. The following abstract shews the quantities and values of the principal staples:—

* Includes timber.

114. The large increase under rice was due to the more regular working of the rice mills at Mutla. The greater demand and better prices that prevailed in the Calcutta market account for the increase under hay and straw. The decrease under firewood was to some extent due to the more extended use of coke for domestic purposes in the vicinity of the town.

NORTHERN BENGAL STATE RAILWAY.

115. The total traffic attracted to the Northern Bengal State Railway during 1881-82, as compared with that of the preceding two years, was as follows:—

	Down traffic. Quantity.	Down traffic. Value.	Up traffic. Quantity.	Up traffic. Value.	Total. Quantity.	Total. Value.
	Mds.	Rs.	Mds.	Rs.	Mds.	Rs.
1879-80	18,07,781	1,61,61,688	8,49,447	1,54,82,758	26,57,228	3,16,44,446

116. It will be seen that there has been a large and steady expansion of traffic upon this line since it was opened in February 1878. The weight of goods carried downwards during the past year was 19·16 per cent. in excess of the figures for 1880-81, and 47·19 per cent. above those for 1879-80. The upward traffic also shews a steady development, the quantities for the past year being 86·20 per cent. greater than those for 1880-81, and 117·63 per cent. in excess of the totals of 1879-80. Of the 386 lakhs of rupees worth of goods carried along the line, as much as 92 lakhs consisted of piece-goods. The next most valuable articles are Indian tea, which is valued at nearly 71 lakhs of rupees, and raw jute, estimated at 55 lakhs of rupees. Next to these in value come salt, the trade in which is valued at 18¾ lakhs, food-grains at 18¼ lakhs, tobacco at 16½ lakhs, and intoxicating drugs other than opium at 14½ lakhs.

The following statement shews the quantities and values of all the chief articles of trade carried over this line during the past three years:—

117. Coal and coke.—The upward coal traffic showed an increase of 3,63,658 maunds over the figures of 1880-81, and of 3,60,774 maunds over those of 1879-80.

118. Cotton, twist and yarn (European).—The quantity carried up the line was 8,996 maunds, valued at Rs 5,84,740, against only 1,710 maunds, valued at Rs. 1,11,150 in 1880-81, and 3,204 maunds, valued at Rs. 2,08,260, in 1879-80.

119. Cotton piece-goods (European).—The total value of this traffic amounted to Rs. 91,99,275, shewing a decrease of Rs. 13,97,250 as compared with 1880-81, and of Rs. 92,400 as compared with 1879-80. The decrease, however, was entirely in the local traffic, and not in the through traffic with Calcutta, which shewed a satisfactory increase over the figures of the two previous years The importation of piece-goods into the districts of Northern Bengal from Calcutta by railway and river was as follows:—

The exports by rail shewed an increase of 10·51 per cent. on the returns of 1880-81, and of 16·25 per cent. on those of 1879-80, but in the river traffic the figures shew a trifling advance of 3·88 per cent. as compared with 1880-81, and a decrease of 13·52 per cent. as compared with 1879-80. The steamer service of the Northern Bengal State Railway between Rampore Beauleah and Saraghat carried Rs. 1,21,819 worth of piece-goods into the Rajshahye district, which, however, are not included in the above statement.

120. Jute, raw.—This trade has largely expanded, the total quantity amounting to 12,24,549 maunds, against 6,74,976 maunds in 1880-81, and 7,02,539 maunds in 1879-80. The total quantity sent to Calcutta from Northern Bengal during the past three years was as follows:—

There is very little change in the quantities carried by river routes during the past year as compared with 1880-81, but the rail-borne traffic exhibits an advance of 6,28,956 maunds, or 124·17 per cent.

121. Gunnies.—The total trade under hand-made gunnies registered during the past year was 884,800 bags and 9,637,530 pieces of gunny-cloth. After converting gunny cloth into bags at the rate of two pieces per bag, the grand total of the year's traffic amounted to 5,703,565 bags against 2,257,850 bags in 1880-81, and 1,580,250 bags in 1879-80. The amount of the Calcutta traffic under this head both by rail and river was as follows:—

123. Hides.—The hide trade shewed an advance of 59,104 pieces on the returns of 1880-81, and 110,272 pieces on those of 1879-80. The importations into Calcutta amounted to 46,691 pieces, of which 25,094 pieces were supplied from Julpigoree and 12,053 pieces from Rungpore.

124. Liquors.—This traffic rose from Rs. 5,69,160 in value in 1879-80 to Rs. 7,83,810 in 1880-81, and Rs. 8,18,964 in 1881-82. This traffic depends to some extent upon the requirements of the Commissariat Department at Darjeeling.

125. Iron and its manufactures.—The quantities carried were 1,19,304 maunds, against 81,037 maunds in 1880-81, and 61,376 maunds in 1879-80.

126. Salt.—The increase under the salt trade was as much as 1,30,620 maunds compared with 1880-81, and 2,60,022 maunds compared with 1879-80. The quantities sent to Northern Bengal from Calcutta direct by railway and river were as follow :—

It is satisfactory to observe the steady and increasing success of the railway in superseding country-boats and inland steamers as a salt carrying agency.

127. Sugar.—The sugar trade shewed an increase of 9,245 maunds over the figures of 1880-81, and of 12,479 maunds over those of 1879-80.

128. Tea, Indian.—The total quantity of this article carried down the line was 1,18,222 maunds, shewing an increase of 1,742 maunds as compared with 1880-81, and of 34,924 maunds as compared with 1879-80. The quantity of Indian tea imported into Calcutta by this route was 94,204 maunds, against 1,11,966 maunds in 1880-81, and 83,298 maunds in 1879-80.

129. Tobacco.—The weight carried was 2,52,447 maunds, being 24,[illegible]62 maunds below the trade of 1880-81, but 1,08,207 maunds in excess of that of 1879-80. The unmanufactured tobacco despatched to Calcutta from Northern Bengal by both the routes was drawn from the following districts:—

NALHATI STATE RAILWAY.

131. The quantity of goods carried during the past year was 33 12 per cent. above the trade of 1880-81, due in a great measure to a large quantity of traffic having been attracted to this line from the river Bhagiruthi, which was not navigable during the last five months of the year under report. The following statement shews the quantity and value of the principal staples carried during the past three years:—

132. It will be seen that there was an increase in almost all articles of trade, noteably in piece-goods, wheat, liquors, and mustard-seed. The fluctuation in the silk trade, which fell off from 8,672 maunds, valued at Rs. 30,35,250, in 1880-81, to 5,690 maunds, valued at Rs. 28,45,000, in 1881-82, was due to the diversion of this trade to the Northern Bengal State Railway, which now runs a steamer between Rampore Beauleah and Saraghat for traffic purposes.

TIRHOOT STATE RAILWAY.

133. The total weight and value of goods carried along the Tirhoot State Railway during the past three years were :—

134. The aggregate quantity carried last year shewed an increase of 10,17,752 maunds, or 49·05 per cent., as compared with 1880-81, and of 15,40,684 maunds, or 99·28 per cent., as compared with 1879-80. A large quantity of railway and building materials and coal for railway purposes were carried during the year in connection with the Eastern and Western extensions of the Tirhoot State Railway; but apart from this there has been a marked improvement in almost every class of goods. Of the downward traffic, the largest increase as compared with 1880-81 occurred in tobacco (85,095 maunds), Indian piece-goods in value (Rs. 16,856), ghee (10,747 maunds), indigo (7,021 maunds), and linseed (5,629 maunds); and in the upward traffic the most noticeable items shewing an increase are European piece-goods (Rs. 25,86,675 in value), salt (85,172 maunds), liquors (Rs. 41,796 in value), indigo seed

(19,905 maunds), and iron (16,515 maunds). The abstract below shews the quantity and value of the principal articles carried by this line:—

135. Cotton piece-goods.—The total value of European piece-goods carried upwards during the past year was Rs. 79,25,625, shewing an increase of Rs. 25,86,675 as compared with 1880-81 and of Rs. 18,02,925 as compared with 1879-80. Under Indian piece-goods, however, there was a heavy falling off from Rs 30,60,912 in 1880-81 to Rs. 7,25,940 in 1881-82.

136. Indigo.—The trade in indigo rose from 16,502 maunds in 1879-80 to 37,695 maunds in 1880-81 and 44,438 maunds in 1881-82. The outturn of indigo in this part of the country, however, was not so large as in the previous year.

137. Food-grains.—The total trade during the past three years was—

	1879-80.	1880-81.	1881-82.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Wheat	4,144	46,891	53,701

Paddy	7,104	3,260	1,485
Total ...	3,23,751	4,42,242	3,87,070

Last year there was an aggregate decrease of 55,172 maunds as compared with 1880-81, but an increase of 63,319 maunds is shewn as compared with 1879-80. Much of the above represents purely local traffic; but food-grains are also said to have been sent in considerable quantities to the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, where partial failure of the rain crops had stimulated the local demand. The amount of food-grains sent to Calcutta from the Mozufferpore and Durbhunga districts was 77,428 maunds, of which 68,642 maunds were carried by rail and 8,786 maunds in country-boats.

138. Iron and its manufactures.—The total quantity registered was 56,312 maunds against 40,871 maunds in 1880-81 and 12,168 maunds in 1879-80, the increase being due to the importation of large boilers, machinery, and other kinds of manufactured iron required for the construction of sheds and tramways by indigo concerns, both in the Durbhunga and Mozufferpore districts.

139. Ghee.—The weight carried was 12,865 maunds against 2,285 maunds in 1880-81 and 9,681 maunds in 1879-80. The increase was due partly to a rise in the prices prevailing in the Calcutta market, but principally to the early fall of the waters of the river Gunduck, which began to impede navigation sooner than usual. It is, however, certain that ghee must eventually become one of the chief staples of traffic on this line, notwithstanding the present heavy cost of freight and the risk of damage in transit by rail.

140. Salt.—The salt trade has largely expanded, the total weight carried both ways amounting to 3,85,019 maunds against 3,00,264 maunds in 1880-81 and 2,42,128 maunds in 1879-80. This improvement is partly due to a reduction of the railway freight and partly to the diversion of the traffic from the river to the railway owing to the increasing difficulty of navigating the Gunduck river. The quantity sent to the Mozufferpore and Durbhunga districts from Calcutta was as follows:—

	By railway.	By river.	Total.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
1879-80	1,53,931	1,99,959	3,53,890
1880-81	2,62,343	1,29,862	3,92,205
1881-82	3,49,782	89,317	4,39,099

141. Saltpetre.—The total quantity carried during the past year was 1,00,774 maunds against 1,08,292 maunds in 1880-81, and 1,41,745 maunds in 1879-80. The imports into Calcutta from Mozufferpore and Durbhunga was 97,840 maunds, of which 79,898 maunds were sent by rail, and 17,942 maunds by river.

142. Oil-seeds.—The total quantity of oilseeds carried during the past three years was:—

	1879-80.	1880-81.	1881-82.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Linseed	1,47,849	2,26,431	2,37,979
Mustard-seed	33,289	40,297	28,719
Other oil-seeds	......	417	504
Total ...	1,81,138	2,67,145	2,67,202

There is little or no change in the total figures of the past year as compared with 1880-81, the decrease under mustard-seed being made up by an increase under linseed. The quantity of these seeds sent to Calcutta from the two districts of Mozufferpore and Durbhunga during the past three years was as follows:—

		By rail.	By river.	Total.
		Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Linseed	1879-80	1,01,978	4,25,884	5,27,862
	1880-81	2,06,552	4,61,154	6,67,706
	1881-82	1,96,898	3,12,436	5,09,334
Mustard-seed	1879-80	27,255	94,603	1,21,858
	1880-81	38,024	37,525	75,549
	1881-82	19,019	32,725	51,744

143. Indigo seed.—Last year the quantity of indigo seed carried was very large, being 73,815 maunds against 53,524 maunds in 1880-81 and 44,308 maunds in 1879-80. The increase was due in part to the reduction of the rates of freight for this commodity, but mainly to the fact that in many places the unfavourable weather rendered second sowings necessary.

144. Tobacco.—The tobacco industry is making rapid strides in Tirhoot. There was an increase from 88,695 maunds in 1879-80 to 1,28,552 maunds in 1880-81, and 2,12,507 maunds in 1881-82. The quantity of tobacco sent to Calcutta from the Mozufferpore and Durbhunga districts was 2,064 maunds, of which 2,042 maunds were consigned by rail and 22 maunds by river.

GYA STATE RAILWAY.

145. The total weight and value of goods carried along the Gya State Railway during the past three years were:—

Year.	Towards Gya. Quantity.	From Gya. Quantity.	Total. Quantity.	Total. Value.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.	Rs.

147. Coal.—The increase in the coal-traffic was 44,355 maunds as compared with 1880-81, and 56,960 maunds as compared with 1879-80. This trade fluctuates according to the demands of the Road Cess and Public Works Departments.

148. Piece-goods.—The piece-goods trade along this route is steadily increasing. The value of the different sorts of European piece-goods carried during the past year was Rs. 21,58,350, against Rs. 15,02,775 in 1880-81, and Rs. 16,77,600 in 1879-80. In Indian piece-goods, however, there was a decrease of Rs. 5,48,156 and Rs. 3,93,480 as compared with the two previous years.

149. Gunny-bags.—The trade in gunnies rose from 293,195 bags in 1879-80 to 329,998 bags in 1880-81, and 395,010 bags in 1881-82.

150. Food-grains.—The figures under this head for the past three years are—

The increased quantity of wheat and pulses carried last year did not make up for the falling off in rice and paddy.

151. Lac.—The quantity carried during the past year showed an increase of 10,733 maunds as compared with 1880-81, and of 26,697 maunds as compared with 1879-80.

152. Iron and its manufactures.—Under this head the increase during the past year was 117·29 per cent. as compared with 1880-81, and 457·25 per cent. as compared with 1879-80. These articles were mainly carried for the purposes of the Road Cess and Public Works Departments.

153. Opium.—The amount of opium carried was 16,360 maunds, against 12,366 maunds in 1880-81, and 8,261 maunds in 1879-80.

154. Salt.—The salt trade along this route showed an increase of 20,311 maunds as compared with 1880-81, but a slight decrease of 2,465 maunds as compared with 1879-80.

155. Oil-seeds.—The quantity of oil-seeds carried during the past three years was—

It will be seen that there was an increase of 20·31 per cent. in the quantities carried during the past year as compared with 1880-81, and of 160·65 per cent. as compared with 1879-80.

156. Sugar.—The rapidly extending cultivation of sugarcane in Behar has given a great stimulus to the trade in sugar, the quantity carried being 3,35,558 maunds, against 1,35,586 maunds in 1880-81, and 93,066 maunds in 1879-80. Jaggery is largely exported to stations on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway, and to other stations in the Bombay Presidency.

157. Tobacco.—The amount of tobacco carried over this line during 1881-82 was 12,902 maunds in excess of the previous year's total, and 13,255 maunds above the quantity lifted in 1879-80. Tobacco prepared after the native method is largely exported from the Gya district.

COTTON, RAW.

2. The cotton trade of Calcutta during the past year, as compared with that of the preceding two years, was as follows:—

3. It will be seen that the decrease last year in the import trade was 10·99 per cent. as compared with 1880-81, and 21·28 per cent. as compared with 1879-80. The quality and outturn of the year's crop were both good, which would, no doubt, have resulted in increased trade but for the large supply sent to the European markets from America, where, it is said, the actual outturn (6,600,000 bales) overtopped the previous season's crop, which was one of the largest known for some years. The falling off is also partly attributable to the competition of the direct route viâ Bombay, which attracted a considerable portion of the cotton traffic owing to the lower rates of steam freight to the United Kingdom and the Continent.

Imports.

4. The total imports by rail shewed a decrease of 1,79,232 maunds, or 15·30 per cent. as compared with 1880-81. The traffic along the East Indian Railway was affected to the extent of 16·76 per cent. The imports of cotton were drawn from the following provinces:—

6. The sea-borne imports shewed an advance of 24·37 per cent. as compared with 1880-81, and of 12·73 per cent. as compared with 1879-80. The chief markets which supplied this article largely during the year were Bombay (1,33,251 maunds) and Madras (21,947 maunds).

Imports by sea.

7. The amount of raw cotton exported during the year shewed a decrease of 20·51 per cent. on the returns of 1880-81, and of 13·07 per cent. on those of 1879-80. The bulk of this trade was sea-borne, and its destination was as follows:—

COTTON TWIST AND YARN.

9. The statistics of the trade of Calcutta in cotton twist and yarn are now included in the returns of the East Indian Railway Company, a distinction being made between goods imported from abroad, and those manufactured in this country. The results of the past year's registration compared with the total trade of 1880-81 are as follows:—

Imports
European twist and yarn.

10. The import trade shews a slight increase of 3·95 per cent. Sea-borne goods of European manufacture shewed a decrease of 10·25 per cent., but the quantities produced in the local mills and hand-looms in this country exhibited an increase of 31·80 per cent. The figures given against the imports by sea represent the total clearances for consumption from shipboard and from bond. The sources of this supply during the past two years were—

11. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, thus explains the falling off in the trade:—

"The imports of all descriptions of yarns—grey, white, and coloured—have declined during the year by about 2¼ millions of pounds. This curtailment in supplies has apparently had some influence in keeping down stocks, for at the close of 1880 the quantity of grey yarn in first hands was 3,128 bales, while at the end of 1881 it was 3,042 bales, shewing that the receipts of the year had gone into consumption. These stocks were, however, in excess of the quantity held at the close of 1879."

Indian twist and yarn.

12. As regards the twist and yarn manufactured in this country, the quantities imported by country boats were for the most part shipped from the different mills in the vicinity of Calcutta, as shewn below:—

Exports.
European twist and yarn.

14. As compared with 1880-81, the total increase in the exports amounts to 2·91 per cent. There is a decrease of 9·19 per cent. in the quantities of European twist and yarn exported by country boats, but the railway traffic shews a falling off of 14·42 per cent., while the sea-borne exports have undergone a steady increase, from

48,463 maunds in 1879-80 to 50,053 maunds in 1880-81, and 57,238 maunds in 1881-82. The destination of these exports during the past two years was as follows:—

The aggregate imports of that district therefore amount to 64,293 maunds, as follows:—

21. The registration of this article is made according to value. The valuations given in the foregoing statement are declared values in all cases, save as regards goods carried by railway and by inland steamers. The piece-goods carried by these routes are registered by weight only, and the values are calculated at Rs. 75 per maund, being the average price in Bengal of piece-goods of all sorts.

Imports.

22. The total value of foreign piece-goods cleared for consumption from shipboard and from bond during the past year was Rs. 11,49,12,877, shewing a decrease of Rs. 1,60,49,327 as compared with 1880-81, but an increase of Rs. 1,18,03,147 as compared with 1879-80. The different places which contributed to this supply are shown in the following statement:—

23. The decrease in the imports from the United Kingdom amounted to 12·00 per cent. as compared with the previous year. The Collector of Customs writes:—

"The trade in cotton goods has not continued on the same extensive scale as in the previous year, nor could it be reasonably expected that it would, considering the enormous imports of 1880-81, which must have gone far to fill up the void caused by the famines of past years. These manufactures are the most important articles in the commerce of India, for they reach larger figures than any other article, either import or export, and in Calcutta occupy nearly 62 per cent. of the total value of all imports. The consumption must always attain large proportions even in any year; but when there have been periods of continued prosperity, it is natural to assume that the capacity to purchase articles of clothing would increase, and that there would be a tendency also to invest further and to indulge in the finer descriptions which may be called luxuries. From this it might be argued that last year's importations should have been on a more extended scale, for the people generally have had several years of great prosperity owing to large crops of all kinds of produce, particularly rice, their principal article of food. This prosperity has apparently acted with a result the opposite of what might have been expected, for the crop of rice has been so large that prices have fallen to such a level that it has not paid the ryot to sell at the prices offered. The capacity of the ryot to purchase articles of necessity and luxury has thus been very much reduced by his want of money, though he has had plenty of means of a nature not capable of being turned into money profitably

"The principal article which has been affected by this want of money has naturally been cotton piece-goods, for which the demand during the past year has never been on a scale which seasons of abundant harvest seemed to warrant. Merchants have acted with considerable caution throughout the year, possibly under the impression that there had been an over-supply in the previous year, and there has been in consequence a curtailment in shipments in both yarn and piece-goods. There were also circumstances connected with the cotton trade in Lancashire which considerably retarded Indian imports, though the crop of cotton in America was a full one."

Exports.

24. The export trade shews a slight decrease of ·85 per cent. on the returns of 1880-81, but a large increase, amounting to Rs. 1,00,80,281 in value, or 7·75 per cent., as compared with 1879-80. As regards the several routes followed by the trade, the boat traffic exhibits an advance of 72·18 per cent. as compared with 1880-81; the steamer traffic shews an advance of 33·29 per cent.; the traffic on the East Indian Railway a decrease of 4·89 per cent.; that on the Eastern Bengal Railway an increase of 3·73 per cent.; that on road routes an increase of 13·90 per cent., while the sea-borne exports shew a decrease of 17·55 per cent. The following statement illustrates the distribution of the past year's exports, province by province, as compared with the figures of the two previous years :—

Comparison of imports with exports.

25. After adding 25 per cent. to the total clearances for consumption from shipboard and from bond on account of understatement of values, duty insurance, landing charges, &c., &c., as on previous occasions, the total of the year's traffic amounts to Rs. 14,36,41,096, out of which Rs. 14,00,26,702 worth of goods were exported during the year as shown above. From the balance of Rs. 36,14,394, 25 lakhs must be deducted for the metropolitan consumption, and the result would then be a surplus of imports over exports to the value of Rs. 11,14,394.

Trade of Bengal—Imports.

The gross imports into the province were therefore Rs. 4,73,01,245, against Rs. 4,37,81,351 in 1880-81, and Rs. 4,02,95,510 in 1879-80.

44. There are three cotton mills in the Burdwan division, but no accurate information has been obtained as to the quantity of their outturn. As regards the hand-made goods the Commissioner observes that the cotton looms in Bankoorah and Burdwan have much difficulty in holding their own against imported English goods. In the 24-Pergunnahs district European piece-goods have almost taken the place of country-made cloth, and have been introduced into the remotest parts of it owing to their fine texture and low prices. The celebrated looms of Santipore in the Nuddea district, however, still maintain their reputation. The Commissioner of the Dacca division writes that "one noticeable feature in the trade of the year is that Bombay machine-made dhootees are superseding those of Manchester. Everywhere the Bombay dhootees are in great request. They are more costly, but are more in accordance with native taste, and generally considered to be more durable." In the Behar sub-division of the Patna district cotton and silk fabrics are manufactured to a large extent, and in Gya some trade in country-cloth is said to exist in the Progress of local manufacture by steam and by hand.

sub-division of Aurungabad, but English imported goods are forcing the weavers to agriculture. In the Jehanabad sub-division of the same district however weaving and cloth-painting still flourishes, notwithstanding the large imports of English made goods. The statements made under this head by some of the district officers in their annual reports for the year 1881-82 are extracted below:—

Howrah.—"There has been a decrease in the sales of country-made clothes consequent on the increase in the sales of Europe manufactured clothes. Though the native dhootees and sarees are used as the superior dress of the native population, yet they in their ordinary costume largely use Manchester dhootees for their cheapness and durability, only the richer classes ordinarily use the country-made dhootees to a large extent. In this district clothes are prepared in the villages of Salkea, Chuckerborey, Jagadishpore, Khatora, Bonnapara, and Panchla. The clothes made in Salkea and Chuckerborey are of superior quality. All these clothes are brought to the Howrah Hat and sold. This Hat is noted for the sale of clothes in Lower Bengal, and people come to it from Nuddea, Chandernagore, Hooghly and Burdwan districts. The Calcutta traders, like the cloth sellers of other districts, buy and export them to Calcutta."

Burdwan.—"In the sub-division of Culna there is no mill worked by steam-power for the manufacture of piece-goods, &c. The Sub-divisional officer states that fine dhootees, sarees, and chaddars, are woven by hand-looms with twist imported from Manchester, &c., and are of a far superior quality to those imported from Europe. These dhootees, &c., are generally sold from Rs. 4 to Rs. 12 a pair, and find a ready market amongst the well-to-do classes in Culna and elsewhere."

24-Pergunnahs.—"Hand-looms have nearly disappeared. Country clothes are manufactured in certain parts of the Baraset, Satkhira, and Basirhat sub-divisions, but they do not find ready sales in market owing to their high prices, as compared with that of European piece-goods A few hand-looms that still exist in Baranagore, Tengra, Baduria, &c., provide fine clothes for the people of the higher classes."

Jessore.—"It must be noted that the low price and superior quality of Europe imports has proved the deathblow to native piece-goods formerly being extensively made in the north of the district. Weavers have now for the most part abandoned their trade and fallen back on agriculture for subsistence, and those who continue to ply their trade are forced to eke out their scanty earnings by occasional recourse to other callings."

Dinagepore.—"The local manufacture of hand-made coarse cotton cloth for home use is carried on to a small extent in all parts of the district; but this industry is gradually falling behind, being unable to compete with European piece-goods in point of cheapness."

Rajshahye.—"The native weavers still manufacture a sort of course cotton cloth which is in demand among the lower classes. The trade, however, has fallen off, owing to large supply of piece-goods and their cheapness Among the wealthy classes there is still a great demand for native woven cloth of a fine kind for dhootees, sarees, and chaddars. These are imported from Dacca, Pubna, Howrah, and Santipore."

Rungpore.—"The indeginous cloth and silk manufactures are dying away; the only one worthy of notice is a sort of coarse silk cloth called endee made by the lower classes of peopel, chiefly for warm clothing. There is, however, no demand for it outside of the district."

Darjeeling.—"There is no manufacture of cloth by steam in the district. The only varieties made in the district consist of a sort of strong coarse cloth worn by the Paharias of endee cloth made from the silk of the worm that feeds on the castor-oil plant (Sanskrit "Eranda") and of a few pieces of bed sheets and Lepcha cloth. These are all products of hand-looms, and cannot compete with English piece-goods in cheapness or fineness of fabric."

Julpigoree.—"There are no steam manufactures. The hand manufactures consist of the cloth worn round the body of the women of the lower classes in this district. These cloths are known as phota. They are made and sold by native weavers of imported thread, of which there are five colours, viz., white, blue, red, yellow, and green. Of these the white and red coloured threads are most in demand. The merchants assure me that the manufacture is decreasing rather than increasing, the photas being superseded gradually by the imported piece-goods. For my own part I should doubt this, at least in the case of women who have to go about from place to place. The women of a better class who stay at home may be discarding the country cloth for the English piece-goods, but the former must hold its own with the poorer women, for the simple reason that it wears better, till a better description of cloth is sent out from England. Besides these photas the Meches manufacture and wear very strong cloth of the endee silk. When Meches take to English piece-goods in preference to their own capital cloths, they will cease to be Meches."

Dacca.—"The fine fabric known as Dacca muslin has almost entirely disappeared. I am informed that there is but one manufacturer of it left; there were but two or three pieces in all produced last year, worth from Rs. 100 to Rs. 130 per piece. The item Dacca muslin may now be considered as having ceased to form a staple of commerce, but although the very fine muslin known as Dacca muslin has ceased to be manufactured, there is a considerable trade done in ordinary muslins here. There was about Rs. 20,000 of muslin manufactured here last year, but owing to the dulness of the market about half the stock remains still unsold.

"There is also a large trade done in Dacca embroidered cloth, called respectively jamdani, muslin, and kasida. These staples are in great request, the former amongst Hindoo ladies, and the latter for export to Persia and Turkey. In my last year's report sufficient prominence was not given to these industries, and I did not sufficiently distinguish them from what is known to the world as "Dacca muslins" the produce of each has been last year worth about Rs. 1,25,000 aggregating Rs. 2,50,000.

Mymensingh.—"As reported in former years, the trade in country cloth continues to decrease steadily. Many of the whilom weavers have in past years given up the trade and taken to agriculture instead."

Chittagong.—"But so far it is certain that although the imported piece-goods have not been able, as in some parts of Bengal, to supersede altogether the use of the country made cloths, they are making steady progress here year after year. The main obstacle to their quick extension and general adoption by the people, is the fact that the district is principally inhabited by Mussulmans and Mughs, the Hindoos forming a very minor proportion of the population. The two former classes, unlike the Hindoos (whose mode of living and dress changes constantly with the daily changing fashions) have a wonderful leaning towards their old habits. They are not so easily led away by the novelty of things as the Hindoos, and consequently the use of the imported piece-goods by them has been nominal, using them, as they do, for making only their shirts, coats, &c. The use of the country-made loongi, therefore, both by males and females of these two classes and coarse cotton dhootees (in two pieces) by the females of their poorer brethren, remains still undisturbed. The loongis require few washings, and last long, sometimes two or three years, and it is this only that gives its preference to foreign piece-goods. So long, therefore, as the European weavers will not learn to prepare loongis, the complete victory of the foreign piece-goods over the country-made ones will not be achieved."

Purneah.—"There is no steam loom in this district. The weavers in the sudder sub-division have in many cases taken to cultivation as weaving does not pay. It cannot be said that manufacture by native weavers has entirely ceased. It has been ascertained that 1,818 bundles of English yarn, worth Rs. 7,610, were sold for weaving purposes in the sudder sub division during the past year 1881-82.

"The Sub-divisional officer of Kissengunge states that country clothes, viz., Tenas and Photas (lower and upper garments of women) are manufactured by hand-looms. Although the importation of English clothes has at once put a stop to the earnings of the weaver class in districts adjoining Calcutta, yet up to this time the weavers in the Kissengunge division are better off, because only the male portion of the population uses imported clothes, and, as a rule, women will never use them except for sheets to cover the head. The weaver class consists of the following castes in Kissengunge sub-division:—Tantees, Chapwals, Jolahs.

"In Arrareah sub-division both Hindoos and Mahomedans follow the profession of weaving. The Hindoo weavers are known by the name of Tatwas and Mahomedans as Momins. The latter class have lands to cultivate, and work at looms at leisure hours. All the looms of the sub-division are worked by hand, and the country cloth is used by the lower castes of Hindoos and Mahomedans in very poor circumstances."

Imports.

50. The importation of raw jute during the past year reached the largest total yet recorded since 1876-77, the percentage of increase being 29·31 as compared with 1880-81, and 19·04 as compared with 1879-80. This result is due to the year's crop being a very full one. In the Dacca division the outturn of jute is said to have been more plentiful than at any time within the last ten years. The Commissioner writes:—

"Jute is a paying cultivation, and the growers of this plant are said to be prosperous everywhere. In Dacca thay are said 'to be about the most prosperous peasantry in India.' The Collector of Furreedpore states that 'the poorer classes live, and that, too, very comfortably, on the sale proceeds of their jute produce alone;' and in Mymensingh the growers of this plant are stated to have made 'a good thing of it, as usual.' The prices were generally lower than in the previous year, and in Dacca the beparies or middlemen at one period of the season lost money owing to the fall of prices in the Naraingunge market, but it is stated that on the whole they did well. In Mymensingh 'prices ruled high in October 1881, but have since then steadily fallen off, and speculators who took forward contracts made money, most others failed."

51. As regards Northern Bengal it is stated that in Dinagepore the crop was a bumper one, while in Rungpore, which is the largest jute-growing district, not only was there an exceptionally good crop in the past year, but the area under cultivation of jute has been steadily increasing since 1873.

52. Looking to the different routes followed by the trade during the past year, it will be seen that, unlike other years, by far the largest portion was imported by rail. The increase in the quantity carried by the Eastern Bengal Railway amounted to 45·49 per cent. on the returns of 1880-81, and to 25·18 per cent. on those of 1879-80. The Northern Bengal State Railway shewed an increase of 124·17 per cent. over the figures of the previous year and of 83·87 per cent. over those of 1879-80. The imports by country boats advanced 11·82 per cent. as compared with 1880-81, and 2·56 per cent. as compared with 1879-80, while in the traffic carried by inland steamers the increase was 25·70 and 13·74 per cent. respectively. The road traffic shewed a decrease of 73,767 maunds on the figures for 1880-81, but an increase of 2,18,290 maunds on those of 1879-80.

61. The total increase under imports was 7,216,766 bags as compared with 1880-81, and 7,060,808 bags as compared with 1879-80. The advance was most marked in the quantities carried by boat (22·85 per cent.) and by rail (76·84 per cent.) Out of the total traffic shewn against the Eastern Bengal Railway, as much as 4,263,610 bags were consigned via the Northern Bengal Railway against 1,269,072 bags in 1881. The imports by sea, however, shewed a falling off of 58·61 per cent. as compared with 1880-81. This was due chiefly to shorter shipments from Bombay and British Burmah.

The decrease in the exports of gunny-cloth by sea during the past year was due to the extraordinary local demand created by the large exports of food-grains and seeds.

72. Besides the registered traffic mentioned above, the quantity of power-loom gunny cloth sent up-country direct from the neighbouring mills without passing the Port Commissioners' wharves, but intercepted at the toll stations on the Nuddea rivers, was as follows:—

73. According to measurement the gross total of the year's traffic under exports was 44,477,330 yards. Deducting from this 1,033,208 yards imported from the interior, and allowing 2,000,000 yards for the Calcutta consumption, we get as the outturn of manufacture in Calcutta 45,444,122 yards, which is equal to 5,68,052 maunds at about 80 yards to a maund, against 85,994,531 yards, or 10,74,932 maunds, in 1880-81, and 62,497,260 yards, or 7,81,216 maunds, in 1879-80.

FOOD-GRAINS.

74. As in 1880-81, so in the year under report, there has been a plentiful harvest throughout the country, and prices have now reached the lowest point known for years. The Commissioner of the Patna Division writes:—

"The prices of 1881-82 are absolutely unexampled for lowness, and those for 1880-81 are generally far below the average prices of the preceding years. The great fall in price of the commonest articles of food, such as barley, maize, and murwa, is one of the most satisfactory features of the year in one respect; but the cheapness of food-grains was of course a subject of complaint among the agricultural classes, who could not dispose of their surplus produce except at prices which they considered unremunerative."

75. In the Bhagulpore Division the crops on the whole were not good, but notwithstanding this fact the prices ranged unusually low. The Commissioner remarks:—

"The low prices of the last year continued during the year under report. The price of rice was still lower; it was due not so much to the good harvest of the year before last as to the want of demand. The price of wheat rose during the year owing to the marked deficiency in the outturn of the crop."

76. The condition of the grain market in Northern and Eastern Bengal may be read in the following extracts, taken from the annual reports of the Collectors of Dinagepore, Tipperah, Backergunge, and Mymensingh:—

Dinagepore.—"One noticeable feature in the rice trade of the district has been that while the yield of the rice crop was not above the average, the prices fell lower than that of the year preceding. During my cold-weather tour in January last, I found at Nitpore, a large rice exporting mart on the river Poonarbhaba, that common rice was selling at one rupee and less a maund. The harvests in other rice districts had been good, and sellers here had stocks already in hand, which added to this year's produce made an accumulation they were anxious largely to get rid of. Prices consequently were low."

Tipperah.—"The only feature worthy of special notice in the above year is the continued stagnation of the rice export trade, due to the plentiful harvests enjoyed during the past season by this district in common with the whole of Bengal. There has been little or no demand for the rice of this district, although it has been selling during the year at an average price of about 30 seers per rupee. The dulness of the export trade in rice has naturally reacted on the general import trade; and although jute, cotton, and betelnuts, have been more largely than ever exported from this district, the balance of trade has not been restored to its former level."

Backergunge.—"The quantity exported in 1881-82 may be estimated at 26,00,000 maunds, against 24,00,000 maunds in 1880-81. The reason of this increase is that in 1881-82 the average price of rice sold in the district was considerably lower than in 1880-81, though the Calcutta price remained almost the same. In 1880-81 rice was sold at an average rate of 23·9 seers to the rupee, whereas in 1881-82 it was sold at 29·3 seers. This induced the merchants to conduct their business on a large scale."

Mymensingh.—"The rice market was as bad, if not worse than the last year, as there were again abundant harvests this year. Coming upon the top of the bumper harvests last year, and before the stocks of last year could be got rid of, the new stocks came to hand. As far as I can learn, there is a perfect glut in the market at present, making things almost as bad for the agriculturists as if there had been a total failure of the crop, as at present they can get little or no sale for their stocks, and most who can afford it are holding up, waiting for the (to them) better times."

77. The Collector of Noakholly states that the fact that cultivators could not sell their rice made it necessary for them in some cases to part with their cattle in order to pay their rent.

78. The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division writes:—

"It will be seen that rice was extremely cheap in all the districts, cheaper even than last year. The fluctuations in price were very slight from one month to another, the abundant harvest of the preceding year having probably led to accumulations of stocks, so that the market was not dependent on the prospects of the growing crop at different seasons. All other articles of food were also cheap."

79. As regards the Presidency Division the Commissioner observes that "two plentiful harvests in succession have resulted in unusually low prices which have ruled during the year."

80. The result of the plentiful supply has been a great expansion of the food-grain traffic of Calcutta during the past official year. As compared with 1880-81, the aggregate increase in the import trade amounts to 25·44 per cent, while in the export trade the advance has been 31·24 per cent. The following abstract shows the total trade, import and export, under each class of food-grains separately during the past three years:—

85. There has been a considerable expansion of the Indian wheat trade during the past year, the figures reaching the largest total yet registered. The improvement is mainly due to a deficient American harvest, and to the action of the speculators there in holding up their stocks in the hope of forcing up prices. The Collector of Customs writes :—

"This smaller crop in America and the speculation in this grain have acted most beneficially so far as India is concerned, for this country has exported to Europe enormous quantities of wheat, the shipments from Bombay having increased in a much more astonishing degree than those from Calcutta. There can be no doubt that the extension of the railway system in India has had a great effect on this trade, as supplies can now be brought from districts which formerly were so remote from the sea-board, and with which the means of communication were so bad that it was impossible without great expense to send down produce to the port of shipment. It may also be said that the tapping of the country by these railways has to a certain extent created trade, for now that cultivators understand that a market for their produce is open to them without difficulty or great expense, they will be stimulated to grow larger crops. I believe that this is specially the case with wheat, for there can be no doubt that the cultivation of this grain in the Punjab and the North-West has been promoted by the easy and comparatively cheap means of communication that can now be obtained owing to the extension of the railway system."

86. The total import trade in wheat showed an increase of 51·53 per cent on the trade of 1880-81, and of 184·33 per cent on that of 1879-80. By far the largest importation was made by the East Indian line, which carried 78·30 per cent of the total trade, the percentage of weight carried by country boats being 19·36, and that by the Eastern Bengal Railway 1·59 per cent. In the following statement the imports of wheat into Calcutta are classified by provinces :—

91. The increase in the export trade was 65·39 per cent as compared with 1880-81, and 288·31 per cent as compared with 1879-80. The amount of the sea-borne exports is 99·17 per cent of the total trade, the distribution of which was as follows:—

92. The countries from which the United Kingdom draws its supplies are Russia, Germany, France, Turkey, Roumania, Egypt, United States, Chili, British India, Australia, and British North America; and the Collector of Customs writes that, with the exception of the United States, India was the largest source of supply. The cultivation of wheat is extending rapidly in the Punjab, the North-Western Provinces and the western parts of Behar; and a large and steady development of trade in this important staple may confidently be expected.

93. After deducting the exports from the imports, there remains a surplus of 16,23,524 maunds, against 15,66,138 maunds in 1880-81, and 14,33,906 maunds in 1879-80.

GRAM AND PULSE.

95. The import trade shows an advance of 19·06 per cent on the trade of 1880-81, and of 15·56 per cent on that of 1879-80. The quantity sent to Calcutta by river routes was only 2·68 per cent in excess of the imports by the same routes during the preceding year, but that brought by rail was more than 31·92 per cent over the figures of 1880-81. The increase on the road routes was 60·98 per cent. The sources of the supply, province by province, were as follows:—

Principal marts on road routes.

98. The road traffic was for the most part comprised of imports from Barasot (90,498 maunds against 57,381 maunds in 1880-81, and 27,558 maunds in 1879-80), and from Busseerhat (39,003 maunds against 23,435 maunds in 1880-81 and 7,715 maunds in 1879-80).

Exports.

99. The total increase in the export trade was 4·52 per cent as compared with 1880-81, and 10·72 per cent as compared with 1879-80. The quantity exported by sea during the past three years was as follows:—

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

100. The surplus of imports over exports was 15,08,977 maunds, against 11,25,482 maunds in 1880-81, and 9,96,144 maunds in 1879-80.

102. The rice trade showed unusual activity during the past year. The principal reason for this increase was of course the magnificent harvest, which left a very large surplus stock available to meet the demands of other countries. The crop was so plentiful that prices fell to the lowest point known for years. "The year 1881," it is stated by the Economist, "will long be memorable as having exhibited more numerous fluctuations and lower prices for nearly every description of rice than ever known before."

Imports.

103. The quantity of rice and paddy brought to Calcutta during the past year was 14·87 per cent in excess of the imports during the preceding year, and 50·84 per cent above those of 1879-80. The supply conveyed by country boats during 1881-82 was 76·94 per cent of the total trade, and that attracted to the rail was 14·10 per cent, of which the share of the East Indian Railway was 8·23 per cent, of Eastern Bengal Railway 1·65 per cent, of Northern Bengal State Railway 2·64 per cent, and of the Calcutta and South-Eastern State Railway 1·58 per cent, while the proportion of the road traffic to the total trade was 7·29 per cent. The sources of this supply, province by province, as compared with the trade of the two previous years, together with the various channels through which the supply was received, are shown in the following abstract.

110. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, writes:—

"These increased exports have been very unequally distributed amongst the consuming countries, for while shipments to the United Kingdom, Cape of Good Hope, Réunion, South America, Aden, Persia, Arabia, Maldives, and Australia have declined, those to the Mauritius, West Indies, Ceylon, and Straits Settlements all show advances. The principal increase is in the exports to Ceylon, which advanced by over 62 per cent, and this island again takes the first place as the largest consumer of Bengal rice, from which it was temporarily displaced in 1880-81 by the United Kingdom. The increased exports have been to countries supplied with labour by the cooly emigrants of India, who have, no doubt, been able to indulge largely in the rice they prefer owing to the very low price to which it has fallen."

Stocks of rice in Calcutta.

119. The total decrease in the imports amounted to 10·32 per cent. on the figures for 1880-81, and 38·51 per cent. on those of 1879-80. Hides are for the most part brought to Calcutta by rail, of which the East Indian Railway carried 12 10 per cent. less than in 1880-81, and 50 40 per cent. below the total of 1879-80. The Eastern Bengal Railway figures also shewed a decrease of 22·56 and 28·64 per cent. as compared with the two previous years. The boat traffic, however, shewed an increase of 13 05 and 2·26 per cent. as compared with the two previous years. 128. The customs duty on imported salt was reduced from Rs. 3-2 to Rs. 2-14 per maund in August 1878, and has been further reduced to Rs. 2 per maund since 10th March 1882. The effect of this reduction has already manifested itself, for, according to the published fortnightly prices current, the retail price of salt at the present time has fallen in some districts by two seers, in some by three seers, and in some by even four seers or more in the rupee as shown in the subjoined statement.

Exports.

131. The quantity of salt exported from Calcutta during the past year was 4,05,683 maunds, or 5·24 per cent. in excess of the figures for 1880-81, and 4,06,220 maunds, or 5·25 per cent., above those for 1879-80. The exports by country boats, which amounted to 49·20 per cent. of the total trade, were 1,58,862 maunds less than in the previous year. The supply carried by rail, however, shewed an increase of 5,09,732 maunds, namely, 3,11,498 maunds on the East Indian line, 1,97,769 maunds on the Eastern Bengal line, and 465 maunds on the Calcutta and South-Eastern State Railway. The steamer figures exhibit an increase of 46,385 maunds, and the road traffic an advance of 7,826 maunds on the trade of 1880-81. The amount of salt carried viâ the Northern Bengal Railway from Calcutta was 72 70 per cent. of the total supply consigned for the districts bordering on that line. The following comparative statement shews the different provinces to which salt was consigned from Calcutta during the past three years :—

Comparison of imports with exports

132. The surplus of imports over exports amounts to 4,66,282 maunds, against 4,07,610 maunds in 1880-81, and 6,39,189 maunds in 1879-80.

Clearances from shipboard and bond

133. The total quantity of salt on which duty was paid in Calcutta and the 24-Pergunnahs during the past three years, as compared with the quantity sent into the interior from Calcutta in those years, was as follows :—

	Sea imported salt	Excise salt.	Total clearances.	Sent into the interior.

* Including 20,700 maunds of Bombay salt, which was passed free of duty.

134. The total clearances of salt shewed a large increase of 4 42 per cent. on the returns of 1880-81, and of 2·20 per cent. on those of 1879-80. The report on the administration of the Salt Department in Lower Bengal for 1881-82 contains the following explanation on the subject :—

"The increase in Calcutta may be attributed to the fact that, owing to the large quantities imported, the price of salt began to fall, and the merchants preferred to sell their salt from shipboard, even at a slight loss, rather than incur the heavy expense of landing it into bond with the risk of a further loss; it was also imperatively necessary to give the vessels quick despatch for the sake of the homeward cargo"

135. The quantity of salt available for consumption in Calcutta and the Suburbs, Hooghly, and a part of the 24-Pergunnahs districts, was 3,02,622 maunds, against 3,50,512 maunds in 1880-81, and 5,27,442 maunds in 1879-80.

149. As compared with 1880-81, the increase amounts to 4,658 maunds in the import trade, but there is a slight decrease of 63 maunds in the export trade. The Commissioner of the Patna division, however, remarks that the saltpetre industry has revived considerably in his division during the year under report, and is in a fair way to resume its former activity and prosperity.

150. The quantity of saltpetre carried by rail during the past year was 95·89 per cent. of the total imports into Calcutta. The boat figures shew a slight increase of 4,171 maunds as compared with 1880 81, which is merely a trade fluctuation. The following comparative statement shews the importation of saltpetre from the several provinces during the past three years:—

It will be seen that the outturn in the Behar districts was not equal to the demands made upon it, and more distant places were able to come in and supply part of the needs of Calcutta.

151. The principal supplying stations along the railway lines compared with the previous year were:—

156. The imports of linseed fell off by 24·12 per cent. from those of 1880-81, but they are still 16·13 per cent. above those of 1879-80. The good crops outside India prevented a large quantity of this staple being shipped to foreign countries. The railway traffic shews an increase of 43·62 per cent. on the returns of 1879-80, but in the boat traffic the figures indicate a decrease of 7·07 per cent., thus shewing how the former route is gradually expanding at the expense of the latter. The amount of linseed supplied from each province is shown below:—

There has been a satisfactory increase in the past year's trade owing to the greater demand for mustard-seed in European countries.

163. The total quantity imported by all routes was 30·21 per cent. in excess of the trade of 1880-81, and 15·86 per cent. above that of 1879-80. The rail-borne traffic showed a large advance of 86·69 per cent. as compared with the previous year, but in the figures of boat traffic there was a heavy falling off, amounting to 41·12 per cent. The supply imported by inland steamers, which for the most part represents the produce of the Assam districts, was much the same as in 1880-81. The following statement shews the imports of mustard-seed, classified by provinces:—

164. There has been a great recovery in the imports from the North-Western Provinces during the past year. The Bengal supply shews a large falling off of 6,28,491 maunds as compared with 1880-81, but it is nearly equal to the figures of 1879-80. Of the supplying districts, Patna contributed the largest quantity, namely 5,40,498 maunds, Fyzabad despatched 4,08,707 maunds, Cawnpore 3,10,547 maunds, Kamroop 1,62,619 maunds, Bhagulpore 91,340 maunds, Allyghur 88,595 maunds, Sonthal Pergunnahs 85,350 maunds, and Goalpara 76,513 maunds.

165. The exports have advanced by 18·25 per cent. as compared with 1880-81, and by 24·75 per cent. as compared with 1879-80. The details of the sea-borne exports are shewn below:—

168. The quantity carried to Calcutta during the past year was 9·79 per cent. below the figures of 1880-81, and 8·23 per cent. below those of 1879-80. The silk trade is said to be generally declining in Midnapore, owing to the importation of Chinese silk, while there is no change to record in the condition of the petty native filatures in Hooghly and Howrah. Regarding Moorshedabad the Commissioner remarks that the industry is, as before, still declining, specially the European-managed filatures. The prospects of the silk manufacture in the Rajshahye district also are not satisfactory, as will be seen from the following remarks made by the Commissioner of the Rajshahye and Cooch Behar division upon the subject:—

Imports.

"Sericulture is on the wane in the district. The rearing of silk-worms on mulberry leaves is carried on by the small cultivators, and the cocoons are either sent to small native filatures, where the silk is roughly woven and consigned to the great cities of the North-West, or are brought to the firms of Messrs. Watson and Co. and Messrs. Louis, Payen and Co., which consign their produce to Europe. Fears exist that 'if not more encouraged,' the manufacture of silk both by natives and Europeans will gradually die out. It is reported that efforts are being made to reduce the rates of rent on mulberry lands, and it is hoped that they will be attended with success and with benefit to the trade. Mr. Gallois, of Kajla Factory, told me the high rents press heavily on it."

169. The rail imports during the past year were for the most part consigned from Damookdia (5,389 maunds), Sarda (892 maunds), Rampore Beauleah (428 maunds), and Goalundo (354 maunds) on the Northern Bengal and Eastern Bengal Railways, and from Azimgunge (3,925 maunds), Mooraroee (2,433 maunds), and Ahmoodpore (922 maunds) on the East Indian Railway.

Principal railway stations.

170. The greater part of the imports by river routes was consigned from Ghattal (2,586 maunds), Midnapore (744 maunds), Tumlook (548 maunds), Oolooberiah (312 maunds), and Berhampore (351 maunds).

Principal river marts.

171. The export trade shows a falling off of 24·93 per cent. as compared with 1880-81, and of 29·77 per cent. as compared with 1879-80. The silk exported by sea during the past three years was distributed as follows:—

174. The sugar trade is of more importance in connection with the local traffic than with the sea-borne trade. Last year the quantity of refined sugar exported by sea was 19·97 per cent. of the total imports, and in the case of unrefined sugar the percentage of the sea-borne exports on the total quantity imported was 13·79.

175. As regards the imports, the figures under refined sugar shew a large increase of 38·32 per cent. on the trade of 1880-81, and of 64·41 per cent. on that of 1879-80, while those under unrefined sugar exhibit an advance of 6·69 per cent., as compared with 1880-81, but a decrease of 8·39 per cent. as compared with 1879-80. The sources of supply, classified by provinces, were—

176. Raw date sugar is one of the most important manufactures of the Nuddea district, and it is said that there are no less than 66 sugar manufactories in Chooadanga alone. The sugar industry in Jessore is also said to be decidedly on the increase. The Commissioner of the Presidency Division writes:—

"The manufactures of Jessore are of the simplest description, the most important being that of goor or unrefined sugar from date juice. This is carried on to an immense extent in the northern half of the district, where nearly every substantial cultivator possesses his primitive array of boiling pans for the preparation of the raw sugar, which is either purchased by itinerant middlemen or sold by the manufacturer himself at the nearest market. The total production of raw sugar is reported to be not less than 4,00,000 maunds, worth Rs. 16,00,000. There is only one establishment in this district for the manufacture of sugar after the European method at Tahirpore, in the head-quarters sub-division under the auspices of a limited company. No trustworthy statistics of its outturn have been obtained."

177. The manufacture of goor is also an important industry in several of the districts of Northern Bengal. There are sugar refineries at Jamalgunge and

Dumduma in the Bogra district, while the goor of Rungpore is said to be of a very good quality, and is extensively exported to the southern districts. Sugar continues to be one of the principal manufactures in the Patna Division. The Commissioner remarks:—

"In Gya the manufacture of goor from sugarcane continues steadily to increase. The opening of the canal and the regular running of a steamer from Dinapore to Dehree has given an impetus to the trade in the south west of the district.

"The returns from the Jehanabad and Mukdumpore railway stations on the Gya line shew that the export of goor (molasses) have this year amounted to over 1,00,000 maunds, as compared with 50,000 maunds last year. There were still a thousand maunds imported from the districts north of the Ganges, and this is said to be of a better quality and more in demand for making confectionery. The goor is mostly exported to Bombay and the Punjab markets.

"In Shahabad the only sugar manufactory of any importance that was founded by a company at Nasrigunge and worked by the motive power of canal water went into liquidation and closed during the year."

178. As regards the Bhagulpore Division the manufacture of goor is said to have flourished during the year, and a large number of Messrs. Thomson and Mylne's sugarcane presses were introduced during the year in different parts of the division.

Exports.

180. Out of the total quantity exported from Calcutta during the past year, 1,53,363 maunds of refined and 3,06,249 maunds of unrefined sugar were carried by internal routes, and 1,01,987 maunds of refined and 1,16,193 maunds of unrefined sugar were exported by sea. The destination of the sea-borne trade was as follows:—

181. After converting refined into unrefined sugar at the rate of one maund of the former to 2½ maunds of the latter, the total of the year's traffic amounted to 21,18,952 maunds under imports, and 10,60,817 maunds under exports. The surplus of imports over exports would thus amount to 10,58,135 maunds, against 7,76,000 maunds in 1880-81, and 3,98,724 maunds in 1879-80.

These figures exhibit a slight increase in quantity in the imports as well as the exports compared with 1880-81. Regarding the quality of the year's crop the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, observes :—

"The quality of the teas produced in the several districts has not been in all cases up to the desired standard. Cachar and Sylhet teas did not reach the quality attained in the previous year; Assam has been of fair average quality—a decided improvement on the 1880-81 production—whilst Darjeeling has shewn a marked improvement, being of fine quality and realizing good prices throughout the season."

183. The Commissioner of the Rajshahye and Cooch Behar division gives the following account of the tea industry in Julpigoree and Darjeeling during the year under report :—

"Tea has made considerable progress in Julpigoree during the year. Of the 53 gardens at work in this district during 1881-82, five are held as ordinary jotes and the remainder are leased under the Tea Lease Rules. The outturn of the year was 1,027,116lbs, being an increase of 209,351lbs over that of the previous year. The Deputy Commissioner thinks 'Julpigoree on the whole is the finest tea district in the Bengal Presidency and Assam.'

"In Darjeeling the industry was most prosperous during the year, favourable weather, a ready market, and high prices all tending to remedy the disasters of the two previous years. The outturn was 6,596,445lbs against 5,160,314lbs in the previous year. It is reported that prices were from 25 per cent. to 40 per cent. better than in 1880. Increased attention is being paid to quality both in plucking and manufacture, and new markets are being opened out."

184. The tea industry in Chittagong is said to have done well, and higher prices were realized than in the previous year; but in the Chota Nagpore division the result was not satisfactory, the crop in Hazaribagh having suffered from want of timely rain, and the absence of occasional sunshine in Lohardugga having prevented the flushes from coming out.

185. The import trade shows an advance of ·11 per cent. on the trade of 1880-81, and of 17·02 per cent. on that of 1879-80. The quantity brought to Calcutta from each province is shown below :—

190. According to the returns of the sea-borne trade, the average price of tea rose from 10 annas 6 pies in 1880-81 to 12 annas in 1881-82. The Collector of Customs writes:—

"The present prospects of the tea industry are of a most encouraging nature. The consumption is increasing in the United Kingdom, Australia is taking a fair quantity, America is now being opened out, and the Cape is probably the next place in which trial is to be made to get a footing for our teas. The low prices ruling during 1880-81 have not been an unmixed evil, for, besides stimulating the planter to turn out better teas, they caused those interested in the trade to look out for other markets than the United Kingdom amongst the countries which are already large consumers of this article of produce. It has been the practice too long for planters and buyers to look only to Mincing Lane for the sale of tea, and it may turn out that the unfortunate results of past seasons were an evil from which good will ultimately come."

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

191. The exports balance the imports with a surplus amounting to 11,096 maunds in 1881-82, 37,861 maunds in 1880-81, and 37,758 maunds in 1879-80.

193. The progress of this trade was to a certain extent retarded during the past year in consequence of the indifferent crop in the Rungpore district, which is the chief source of supply of this staple. The Collector of Rungpore writes on the subject as follows:—

"This article of trade is produced principally towards the north and the north-west of the district. In the past year the outturn of this crop was much reduced owing to a severe hail-storm on the 3rd of March 1881. It is stated that only about a 10-anna crop was obtained, and that, out of this, the quantity obtained of Ujani or Magai, the best sort, was very small. The total quantity exported during the past year is approximately estimated at 7,00,000 maunds, out of which the railway carried about 2,59,000 maunds, against about 3,17,000 maunds in 1880-81. The decrease is evidently due to the bad outturn. The merchants and growers appear, however, during the past year to have secured enormous rates of profit, amounting sometimes to 50 per cent on the capital employed; in consequence of the price of tobacco having risen very high in Rungpore in the middle of the past year, all existing stock was sold out before December, and thus when a brisk demand for the new crop appeared, the outturn was unable to meet it, and the consequence was, that the prices rose as follows:—

Dhálá (the damaged or torn leaves) rose to Rs. 6½ against Rs. 3 of 1880-81.
Púlo (ordinary tobacco taken by Kaias and Calcutta merchants) rose to Rs. 8¼ against Rs. 5½ of 1880-81.
Magai rose to Rs. 12 against Rs. 8 of 1880-81.

"Tobacco is exported on a large scale by merchants from Arracan, Rangoon, and Burmah, and of late years the Kaias have also joined in the trade. There is a branch firm of Ralli Brothers and Co at Domer, who have extensive dealings in jute and tobacco. The only other European firms of any importance are those of Mr. Brice at Kalligunge and Mr. Dodson at Kawneah. But the great majority of the dealers in country produce are from Dacca, Chittagong, Naraingunge, Serajgunge, Goalundo, and Nalchiti. The Sub-divisional Officer of Nilphamari reports that the facilities and advantages of water carriage by the Teesta river have diverted the tobacco traffic from the railway to a considerable extent: a fall in the quantity of tobacco exported by rail from the Nilphamari sub-division is accounted for in the following way:—Tobacco is exported in boats by the Teesta river from Ghoramara and other marts, because much tobacco is grown east of the Teesta: tobacco loses every time if it is handled and carted long distances without heavy loss by dryage, and a considerable part of the tobacco is exported to Dacca and Naraingunge."

194. From Mozufferpore, which is another important tobacco-producing district in Bengal, the Collector writes:—

"Tobacco is largely cultivated and manufactured in pergunnah Saresa, as also in some of the pergunnahs to the south and west of the district. The industry has within the last few years rapidly risen in importance, and there is reason to believe that it will continue to prosper.

"During the year under report the sub-divisional officer of Hajipore reports that from Hajipore alone 2,11,260 maunds were exported against 87,000 maunds of the previous year. From Mohnar it is estimated that 15,000 maunds were exported while from Biddupore, a mart of little importance, 2,000 maunds were sent to Patna, against 1,600 maunds of the preceding year.

"From the sudder sub-division the exports during the year are estimated at 6,000 maunds against 3,322 maunds of the preceding year. The total exports therefore for the whole district stand at 2,62,260 maunds and showing a large increase of 1,57,260 maunds."

195. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, remarks that the last arrivals of Poosa tobacco are said to have given great satisfaction, being fully equal to American, which is a hopeful sign. The tobacco industry in Bengal has a great future before it.

Imports.

196. There is little change in the quantities imported during the past year, as compared with 1880-81, but there was a decided increase as compared with 1879-80. The following table gives an abstract of the imports from each province separately during the past three years:—

Principal river marts.

197. The bulk of the traffic carried by country boats was despatched from the marts of Bhuddressur (63,822 maunds), Patna (17,446 maunds), Sookchur (8,399 maunds), Boidyabatty (7,831 maunds), Nyehatty (7,618 maunds), Hooghly (7,327 maunds), and Rungpore (7,290 maunds).

Principal railway stations.

198. The principal railway stations which contributed largely to the trade are Rungpore (67,607 maunds), Kawneah (64,922 maunds), Domer (32,694 maunds), Nilphamaree (28,125 maunds), and Goalundo (13,642 maunds).

The steamers of the Eastern Bengal Railway carried 9,607 maunds of tobacco during the year, of which 9,251 maunds were shipped from Serajgunge.

Principal marts on road routes.

199. The supply imported by road was for the most part brought from Baraset (99,986 maunds), Bongong (27,732 maunds), Ranaghat (23,458 maunds), Korergunge (10,908 maunds), Gurreah (5,632 maunds), and Bussirhat (5,162 maunds).

Exports.

200. The figures of the export trade during the past year show a decrease of 15·69 per cent., as compared with 1880-81, but an increase of 5·07 per cent. as compared with 1879-80. The destination of the sea-borne exports was as follows:—

201. The quantity of tobacco not exported before the close of the year under report was 2,09,506 maunds, against 1,21,792 maunds in 1880-81, and 97,198 maunds in 1879-80.

Quantity not exported before the close of the year.

INLAND TRADE OF CHITTAGONG.

202. The total quantity of goods of all kinds imported into and exported from Chittagong by country boats registered during 1881-82, as compared with the figures for the two previous years, is as follows:—

	1879-80.	1880-81.	1881-82.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Imports	18,30,589	18,17,805	23,71,680
Exports	3,24,190	3,76,389	3,43,298
Total ...	21,54,779	21,94,194	27,14,978

203. It will be seen that the imports during the past year were as much as 30·47 per cent. over the figures for 1880-81, and 29·56 per cent. over those of 1879-80, while, in the exports, there was a falling off of 8·79 per cent. on the returns of 1880-81, but an advance of 5·89 per cent. on those of 1879-80. In the import trade the figures under rice, paddy, cocoanuts, gunny-bags, raw cotton, oils, and firewood shewed a marked increase, but under exports the most noticeable items shewing an advance over the previous year's figures are European piece-goods, salt, and timber. The money value of this trade in the past 3 years is shewn below, as compared with the sea-borne trade—

		Imports.	Exports.	Total.
		Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Inland trade ...	1879-80 ...	62,52,715	12,29,309	74,82,024

	1881-82 ...	89,99,777	98,63,697	1,88,63,474

The total money value of the inland trade shewed an advance of 14·44 per cent. over the figures of 1880-81, but a falling off of 18·11 per cent. on those of 1879-80. As regards the sea-borne trade the increase was 31·51 per cent. as compared with 1880-81, and 42·88 per cent as compared with 1879-80. The fluctuations of trade in respect of the chief staples are explained in the following pages.

204. Caoutchouc.—The quantity sent to Calcutta by sea-going vessels was only 395 maunds, valued at Rs. 27,439, against 919 maunds, valued at Rs. 73,260 in 1880-81, and 1,054 maunds, valued at Rs. 66,072, in 1879-80, the decrease being due to less demand for raw rubber.

205. Cotton, raw.—The registered export trade in raw cotton amounted to 58,163 maunds, against 17,920 maunds in 1880-81, as shown below—

	By country boats.	By sea-going vessels.	Total.	Value.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.	Rs.
1880-81 ...	4,938	12,982	17,920	1,75,861
1881-82 ...	4,648	53,515	58,163	4,48,515

This considerable increase was owing to the good harvest and keen and active competition in the trade. It is explained, however, that in addition to these supplies, quantities of raw cotton are carried to Naraingunge and Calcutta by country boats, which load their goods at places south and north of the Chittagong port, and they do not therefore come within the scope of registration. The quantity of cotton exported to Naraingunge during the past three years was as follows :—

	By country boats.	By sea-going vessels.	Total.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
1879-80 ...	605	17,389	17,994
1880-81 ...	4,108	12,925	17,033
1881-82 ...	4,030	53,480	57,510

206. Cotton twist and yarn, European.—The total value of this class of goods carried to Chittagong from Calcutta by sea-going vessels amounted to Rs. 2,34,143 during the past year, against Rs. 1,81,931 in 1880-81, and Rs. 1,22,234 in 1879-80, the advance being due probably to an increase in the consumption of mill-made twist for the manufacture of hand-woven cloth in preference to hand-spun country yarn.

207. Cotton piece-goods, European.—According to the coast trade returns, the value of the imports from Calcutta was Rs. 16,30,365, shewing a decrease of Rs. 1,51,101 as compared with 1880-81, but an increase of Rs. 2,30,550 as compared with 1879-80. The falling off was due partly to the large stocks in the previous years and partly to less demand for these goods during the past year. The value of piece-goods sent by country boats to the interior of the Chittagong district was Rs. 1,82,589, against Rs. 1,75,989 in 1880-81, and Rs. 84,093 in 1879-80.

208. Jute, raw.—Last year the jute trade shewed a considerable increase over that of the two previous years, as shewn below—

The increase in the import trade was 28·52 per cent., as compared with 1880-81, and in the export trade 40·07 per cent. The Collector of Customs, Chittagong, writes as follows:—

"Though the trade under this heading shows so marked and satisfactory a progress it is susceptible of considerable further expansion, and with the impetus given it in permitting the removal of non-duty paid salt under bond from Chittagong to Naraingunge (the salt and jute trades being intimately connected) and by the establishment at Chittagong of a branch office of another wealthy jute firm, this trade will probably continue to develop as rapidly for the future as it has done since 1877, when it was first established."

209. Gunny-bags.—The money value of the coasting trade under this head was Rs. 2,61,792, against Rs. 1,59,704 in 1880-81, and Rs. 1,93,371 in 1879-80. The chief source of supply was Calcutta, and the large increase (63·92 per cent.) during the past year was due to the expansion of the rice trade, the exports of which were no less than 110·05 per cent. in excess of the figures ofthe year 1880-81. The boat traffic returns of the inland trade shewed an importation of 15,000 bags from Calcutta, valued at Rs. 4,071, against nil in the two previous years.

210. Rice and paddy.—The quantities of rice and paddy carried to Chittagong by country boats during the past three years were as follows:—

As compared with 1880-81 the increase in the rice trade was 36·77 per cent. and in paddy 43·94 per cent. These supplies are chiefly imported from Noakhally, Tipperah, Burrisaul, and Dacca, and are destined almost entirely for exportation by sea, the local produce being only sufficient to meet local consumption. The different marts which contributed to the past year's trade are—

211. The quantities of rice and paddy exported to foreign ports during the past three years were as follows :—

		1879-80.	1880-81.	1881-82.
Rice	Cwts.	552,781½	397,234	834,399

Paddy	Cwts.	311½	7,772	33,077
	Mds.	424	10,578	45,021

The advance under rice was 110·05 per cent., as compared with 1880-81, and under paddy 325 61 per cent. The Collector makes the following remarks regarding the rice trade:—

"The exportation would have been even greater but for strong southerly winds prevailing in March, preventing boats rice laden from bringing further supplies of grain from Noakhally, &c., and ports thereof, and thus prematurely cutting short the Chittagong rice season during the year under review. With a progressively increasing exportation to Ceylon and Mauritius and large exports to West Indies, there is little doubt that the Chittagong rice trade to foreign countries will continue to expand, and with the opening of the projected Chittagong railway that grain shipments will be indefinitely prolonged, if not continued throughout the year."

As regards paddy the increase of 34,445 maunds in quantity was owing to larger shipments to Ceylon, the only foreign country which draws supplies of unhusked rice from this port.

212. The surplus of imports by country boats over the quantities exported by sea during the past three years was as follows:—

		1879-80.	1880-81.	1881-82.
Rice	Cwts.	361,489	375,232	222,080

213. Out of this, the quantities shipped for the different customs ports in connection with the coasting trade, have been as follows:—

		1879-80.	1880-81.	1881-82.
Rice	Cwts.	115,119	292,111	386,717

214. Hides and skins.—According to the coasting trade returns the value of hides and skins exported was Rs. 2,08,889, against Rs. 1,59,356 in 1880-81, and Rs. 1,10,516 in 1879-80. The increase of Rs. 49,533 during the past year consisted of cow hides sent to Calcutta, and was owing to more cattle having been slaughtered for consumption and more hides being therefore available for export.

215. Oils.—The total value of the oils imported by sea-going vessels was Rs. 1,64,078, against Rs. 1,64,990 in 1880-81, and Rs. 2,06,226 in 1879-80. This trade comprises American kerosine, cocoanut oil, and Rangoon and Arrakan earth-oils, the slight decrease in the past year's trade as compared with 1880-81 being in earth oil from Rangoon. The boat traffic returns of the inland trade shew an importation of 6,956 maunds of oils, against 2,317 maunds in 1880-81, and 614 maunds in 1879-80, of which 5,392 maunds were sent from Calcutta.

216. Salt.—The total quantity of salt imported into Chittagong by sea was 3,76,380 maunds, against 3,45,711 maunds in 1880-81, and 3,12,382 maunds in 1879-80. Of this, 3,73,497 maunds were received from the United Kingdom, 2,877 maunds from France, and six maunds from Madras. The money value of this trade under foreign imports shewed a decrease of Rs. 22,647 as compared with 1880-81, due chiefly to lower rates on this article, consequent on the keen competition in the trade throughout the year under report. The Collector writes:—

"The Chittagong salt trade has now arrived at an important epoch in its history, and its progress henceforward will probably be even more rapid than that of the past year, as the practical effect of the late reduction from Rs. 2-14 to Rs. 2 per maund in the salt duty; and the liberal permission lately accorded by Government of removal of non-duty paid salt under bond from Chittagong to Naraingunge will be to afford a great impetus to this trade, expanding though it be naturally. But an unlimited field of operation is opening out in supplying salt to the whole of Eastern Bengal through the port of Chittagong. Many, if not all the large first class vessels, which heretofore have arrived at this port in ballast to load jute outward, and which are too large to go direct to Naraingunge to load, will now bring salt cargoes; the importation will therefore be comparatively speaking enormous, and the salt revenue realized will be proportionately increased, while the extra work and responsibility entailed on the Chittagong customs in supervising the delivery of salt will be of course also very considerably enhanced."

The quantity of salt exported from Chittagong by country boats during the past three years was as follows:—

	1879-80.	1880-81.	1881-82.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.

Total ...	1,91,107	2,02,687	2,05,880

Besides these supplies 1,24,153 maunds were sent to Naraingunge by sea-going vessels, against 19,727 maunds in 1880-81, and 52,750 maunds in 1879-80.

217. Sugar, refined and unrefined.—The importation of refined and unrefined sugar into Chittagong by country boats during the past three years was as follows:—

	1879-80.	1880-81.	1881-82.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.
Refined sugar	2,277	3,801	937
Unrefined „	25,657	19,795	21,532

Of unrefined sugar 15,207 maunds were imported from Jessore, 2,043 maunds from Calcutta, and 4,282 maunds from other districts. The total value of sugar imported coastwise during the past year was Rs. 79,876, against Rs. 1,06,346 in 1880-81, and Rs. 59,389 in 1879-80, due to short shipments from Naraingunge and Calcutta, the stocks in hand being sufficient to meet current requirements.

218. Tea, Indian.—The quantity exported from Chittagong in connection with its coasting trade amounted to 809,424lbs, against 736,817lbs in 1880-81, and 688,611lbs in 1879-80. The money value of this trade during the past year was Rs 6,51,177, against Rs. 5,70,780 in 1880-81, and Rs. 6,14,228 in 1879-80. The amount of tea sent direct to the United Kingdom was only 975lbs, against 265lbs in 1880-81, and 1,480lbs in 1879-80.

219. Tobacco.—The total value of tobacco imported coastwise was Rs. 1,23,705 against Rs. 1,06,096 in 1880-81, and Rs. 86,476 in 1879-80. The increase of Rs. 17,609 as compared with 1880-81 was mostly on Rungpore tobacco from Naraingunge, and was due to higher rates of value consequent on short crops and increased demand.

221. The gross value of the import trade shows an advance of 3·52 per cent on the returns of 1880-81, and of 9·63 per cent on those of 1879-80. The export trade exhibits an increase of 6·73 per cent as compared with 1880-81, but a decrease of 17·67 per cent as compared with 1879-80. If imports and exports are taken together, the result is an increase of 5·21 per cent on the trade of 1880-81, but a decrease of 6·87 per cent on that of 1879-80. In the case of the Balasore ports there was an advance of 23·46 per cent under imports, and of ·74 per cent under exports. This is chiefly due to the diversion of the trade from False Point and Pooree to Chandbally, and to the low prices of rice which ruled there. It will be seen that the exportation of rice from these ports during the year was 21·50 per cent in excess of the quantity shipped in 1879-80, but the money value of the trade shows a considerable reduction of 49·36 per cent. There was a large falling off in the export of private specie as compared with the two previous years, but the Collector remarks:—

"Whatever be the causes, I am quite satisfied that the falling off is not due to any general decrease in the wealth of the district, and this report is self-evident proof that trade has been brisker during 1881-82 than before. If other proof of this had been wanting, it is supplied by the large increase in the number and tonnage of ships visiting the ports, and freights have been very low at Chandbally, our principal port, owing to the great competition which is going on between the three rival Steam Companies."

222. In Cuttack the decrease in the value of imports amounted to 45·60 per cent as compared with the previous year, and was chiefly due to short consignments of piece-goods, twist, apparel, and metals. The Collector writes :—

"It is not probable that there has been any decrease of consumption during the year, which has been in the main a prosperous one. It is rather owing to the diversion of this trade to Chandbally, as stated in paragraph 10 of my last Annual Report, and this fact is clear from the gradual increase in the number of steamers running between Cuttack and Chandbally. Four steamers now ply by that route against two in 1880-81 and one in 1879-80."

In the export trade there has been an increase of 279·77 per cent under treasure, but a decrease of 13·85 per cent is shown under merchandize. This falling off is mainly attributable to the reduction in the export of oil-seeds owing to the unfavourable outturn of the crop during the year under report.

223. As regards Pooree, the falling off is considerable, amounting to 94·47 per cent in the imports, and to 33·65 per cent in the exports. The former were affected owing to the communication by steamer with Calcutta having been stopped for a length of time, the sea being unusually rough during the greater part of the year, in consequence of which merchants and dealers had to get their supplies through the ports at Chandbally and False Point. Concerning the export trade, the Collector writes as follows :—

"The falling off in the value of the export trade by sea is attributable to the following causes. The demand for rice (which is the principal article of export) in Ceylon and in the Madras Presidency was considerably less than in the previous year. The price of rice at Balasore having been cheaper than in Pooree, the Telugu merchants were induced to leave this port for Balasore. The opening of the canal between Cuttack and False Point diverted a good deal of rice grown in the north of the district from Pooree to False Point harbour."

226. Apparel.—The total value of the imports under this head was Rs. 2,84,367, against Rs. 2,79,924 in 1880-81 and Rs. 1,50,797 in 1879-80, of which Rs. 2,76.228 worth of goods were sent to Balasore, and were almost entirely consigned from Calcutta.

227. Cotton Twist and Yarn.—The total importation of these goods was 3,422,238lbs (41,589 maunds), against 2,373,838lbs (28,849 maunds) in 1880-81, and 1,779,973lbs (21,631 maunds) in 1879-80. Mr. Chapman, the Customs Officer at Chandbally, considers that the very large increase in the import of cotton twist may be taken to indicate a great increase in the local manufacture of cloth.

228. Cotton Piece-goods.—The total trade amounted in value to Rs. 10,71,329, against Rs. 14,00,520 in 1880-81, and Rs. 6,87,123 in 1879-80. The value of these goods imported into Balasore was Rs. 9,78,761 against Rs. 8,22,773 in 1880-81. The greatest portion of this is taken into the Cuttack district, and only a small supply passes towards Bhuddruck and to the northern Gurjat state, while a small quantity is disposed of locally by petty traders. The Collector of Cuttack attributes the falling off in the last year's transactions to the slackness in trade and also to the greater demand for country-made cloth. The Collector of Pooree writes:—

"Piece-goods of English manufacture are largely used by the people in the interior. The several marts situated in the interior get their supplies both from Pooree and Cuttack. Those situated in the northern part of the district generally get their supplies from Cuttack. Cloth of European manufacture is extensively finding its way into the interior of the district, and is preferred by almost all classes of people owing to its comparative cheapness. At every hât in the interior it may be seen in large quantities, where it is largely sold even by the native weavers. Piece-goods manufactured by hand-loom in Bengal are brought to this district chiefly for the use of the Bengalis who reside in this district. Very few of the Urias who have adopted the manners and habits of the Bengalis like to use it. Besides, there is a considerable trade in piece-goods carried on with Berhampore and Ganjam in the Madras Presidency. These districts supply coarse cloth of native manufacture on a large scale. Berhampore also supplies good and fine silk cloths to some extent. The district also produces a small quantity of coarse cloth to supply its own wants.

"Piece-goods of European manufacture are cheaper than those of native manufacture, and are therefore used by nearly all classes of the community. The agricultural class and the lower classes generally adhere to country-made coarse cloth."

229. Gunny-bags.—The trade in gunnies showed an increase of 208,618 bags as compared with 1880-81, but a decrease of 289,078 bags as compared with 1879-80. This traffic will always rise or fall according to the requirements of the grain trade. It is said, however, that power-loom bags are taking the place of those made by hand-loom.

230. Metals.—The total quantity under this head was 17,885 cwts. (24,338 maunds) against 24,816 cwts. (33,777 maunds) in 1880-81, and 33,575 cwts. (45,631 maunds) in 1879-80.

231. Ghee.—The amount of ghee imported during the year was 271,101lbs (3,295 maunds) against 283,598lbs (3,446 maunds) in 1880-81 and 86,106lbs (1,046 maunds) in 1879-80. It is said that the last year's supply was inferior in quality and was not much liked by the people.

232. Opium.—The total value of the import trade in opium was Rs. 3,43,680 against Rs. 2,57,520 in 1880-81. The Collector of Cuttack, however, states that the last year's figures include a quantity of opium for consumption in 1882-83, imported late in the year under review.

233. Spices.—The total quantity of spices was 577,124lbs (7,014 maunds) against 444,917lbs (5,407 maunds) in 1880-81, and 615,782lbs (7,556 maunds) in 1879-80.

234. Betelnuts.—This traffic showed an increase of 509,065lbs (44,867 maunds) as compared with 1880-81, but a decrease of 40,212lbs (489 maunds) as compared with 1879-80.

235. Tobacco.—The total of the tobacco trade was as follows:—

			1879-80.	1880-81.	1881-82.

As compared with 1880-81, the figures show an increase of 19,655lbs (238 maunds) in quantity, but a decrease of Rs. 8,266 in value.

236. Treasure.—The value of specie imported otherwise than by Government was Rs. 3,31,448, against Rs. 4,83,297 in 1880-81, and Rs. 8,28,891 in 1879-80.

239. It will be seen that as in 1880-81 the price of rice continues to fall, and that though the quantity exported very greatly increased, the value of the export has not risen to the same extent. The price of rice in the Cuttack district is said to have been lower than at any period within the last sixteen years. 240. Hides.—This traffic shows a large increase of Rs. 4,37,294 in value as compared with 1880-81, and of Rs. 6,11,508 as compared with 1879-80.

241. Til seed.—The total quantity shipped during the year was 2,727 cwts., or 3,702 maunds less than the figures for 1880-81, but it was in excess of the trade of 1879-80 by 7,926 cwts., or 10,788 maunds. The falling off in the trade of the Cuttack district was 10,026 cwts. or 13,646 maunds, and was owing to the indifferent crops of the year.

242. Timber and Sleepers.—The total exports under this head were 43,564 cwts. (59,295 maunds), against 1,092,360 cwts. (14,86,823 maunds) in 1880-81, and 752,120 cwts. (10,23,719 maunds) in 1879-80. The Collector of Balasore states that the decrease in the exports of sleepers was probably due to the fact that the local traders have temporarily diverted their capital to the execution of work on the Coast Canal.

243. Silver, private.—The amount of private silver carried from Orissa was Rs. 12,57,739, against Rs. 16,98,097 in 1880-81, and Rs. 18,29,726 in 1879-80. The Collector of Balasore writes :—

"It will be noticed that for the first time the export of private specie has fallen off not only below what it was last year, namely Rs. 16,75,596, but below what it was in 1879-80, when it amounted to Rs. 13,65,868, against Rs 12,57,738 in 1881-82. I have so frequently pointed out to the increase in this trade as indicating the progress in the material prosperity of the district that it is necessary to see if there is any special reason for this sudden fall. It would be presumptuous on my part to offer any definite theory on the point which now presents itself for the first time on a comparison of the year's figures, and I shall make further enquiry on the point, but some reasons suggest themselves and doubtless bear more or less on the point. In the first place, some portion of the capital devoted to this trade may have been diverted to the works of construction on which Government is engaged both in Cuttack and Balasore; next, the use of the money-order system is, I believe, extending, (I am unable to delay the report to get exact figures), and owing to the great demand for cash, notes have been freely issued at the Treasuries in exchange for silver. Exportation of capital in the form of orders or notes escapes registration entirely. Again, the trade itself, which originated in the passing backwards and forwards of a few petty dealers, who took money to purchase goods in Calcutta which they brought back and sold for cash, rapidly repeating their operations, is now established on broader foundations, with a recognised position, and is conducted more upon the credit system; while the value of the imports is counterbalanced by a growing export trade, and thus the necessity of exporting treasure reduced."
